

3. Around Zagatala State Reserve. Located in north Azerbaijan, on the southern slopes of the greater Caucasus, the about 28,000 ha of mountain forests and alpine meadows, range from 600 m to 3500 m. It hosts the three Caucasian endemic bird species, large ungulates and spectacular landscapes. This area is a traditional national tourist destination, but no nature related activities are offered.

*Azerbaijan, Baku city
I. Gutgashenli street 97/44
Azerbaijan Ornithological Society
tel: (+994 12) 510 15 26
web: www.aos.az
e-mail: info@aos.az*

Nature-related tourism has great potentials in Azerbaijan. The wetlands along the Caspian Sea attracts large number birds, including several of rare and endangered species, the mountains host endemic plants and large animals as do the semi-desert areas.

*Editor: E.H. Sultanov.
Text: F.A. Agabalayev.
Photo: E.H. Sultanov, N.C. Agayeva, A.A. Agayeva.
Designer: A.M. Safaralizadeh.*

Career development for Azeri people on nature based tourism at protected areas.

2006

